

Clinical Education Course Summary

Course Title	Dates	Intended Audience	Brief Description	Cost	Duration	Web Link
Introduction to Anatomy & Cancer	14 th June 2022	This course is aimed at any staff working in a health or social care setting who would like to increase their understanding of the human body and the impact of cancer on body systems. As it is an introductory level course it may not be suitable for Registered Health Professionals.	This Course aims to Introduce the structure and function of the human body and Introduce how cancer affects body systems	£60	1 Day	https://education.clatterbridgecc.nhs.uk/short-courses/introduction-to-anatomy-and-cancer
Nature of Cancer Course	8 th & 9 th March 2022 27 th & 28 th June 2022 11 th & 12 th October 2022	This 2 day course provides an introduction to the nature of cancer and is primarily aimed at non-clinical staff. It is also suitable for health and social care practitioners and those wishing to increase their understanding of cancer.	This course aims to Introduce the nature of cancer and its treatments and includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Understanding cancer • Early detection and diagnosis • Radiotherapy • Chemotherapy • Metastatic spread • Health promotion 	£120	2 Day	https://education.clatterbridgecc.nhs.uk/short-courses/nature-of-cancer
Nature of Cancer Plus Course	16 th & 17 th May 2022	This two day course is for staff who have attended the Nature	This course Introduces the	£120	2 Day	https://education.clatterbridgecc.nhs.uk/short-courses/nature-of-cancer-plus

	22 nd & 23 rd November 2022	of Cancer Course or for any clinical staff working in a health or social care setting who have a basic understanding of cancer and its treatments but who would like to further develop their knowledge in this area.	biological and genetic processes involved in the development of cancer and their relationship to cancer treatments and includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Epidemiology of cancer – an introduction • Cancer and the Immune System • Cancer therapies – now and the future • Helpful communication and support
Compassionate Communication In Healthcare	16 th March 2022 19 th October 2022	Any care professional who communicates with people affected by serious or life limiting illness/frailty, but not directly responsible for assessment & planning of care or treatment. Examples include: Health Care Assistants, Social Care Staff, Medical Secretaries, Ward Clerks, Support Staff, Porters	This interactive 1-day workshop day aims to provide you with opportunity to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Appreciate the different ways people express emotional distress and need (such as anger, 	£60	1 Day	https://education.clatterbridgecc.nhs.uk/short-courses/fundamental-communication-skills

			upset, anxiety, worry etc) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Gain Top Tips on communication approaches that help you identify and respond to individual emotional distress in a compassionate way.
Therapeutic Communications Skills Course	30 th March 2022 9 th November 2022	Any care professional who communicates with people facing or affected by serious or life limiting illness/frailty, and directly responsible for gathering and giving information, including as part of identifying problems, needs and concerns. This may include as part of assessments, admissions, planning, and discharge and consultation episodes Examples include: Doctors, Nurses, Radiographers, Allied Health Professionals, Senior support workers (i.e. specifically involved in gathering patient information	This interactive 1-day workshop day aims to provide you with opportunity to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Explore the role of therapeutic communication in enabling a person-centred approach to structuring assessment conversations as part of identifying and meeting the concerns, needs and priorities of patients/families 	£60	1 Day	https://education.clatterbridgecc.nhs.uk/short-courses/intermediate-communication-skills as part of assessment), Social Workers	in order to inform individual need. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Gain Top Tips on approaches/skills and strategies and structures that enable individualised approach to gathering and tailoring of information to meet need and influence well-being.

Advanced Communication Skills Training	*4th & 5th April 2022 *3rd & 4th May 2022 *8th & 9th June 2022 *4th & 5th July 2022 *10th & 11th Oct 2022	In the context of communicating with patients, families or as teams, this course is relevant to senior/experienced health & social care professionals, who wish to enhance their knowledge, skills & confidence with engaging in significant communications/conversations that may be complex, feel difficult, challenging, or highly emotive.	This virtual online course provides a range of interactive learning opportunities to develop knowledge, confidence and skills, pertaining to helpful communication approaches and strategies, known to be helpful on a range of important or complex conversations that can often feel difficult in practice.	£600	e-learning unit (approx. 2-3 hrs) 1:1 Meeting with course facilitator (via Zoom) *2 Day Workshop (live classroom workshops via Zoom)	https://education.clatterbridgecc.nhs.uk/short-courses/advanced-communication-skills-training

	*28 th & 29 th Nov 2022		The course includes an initial e-learning package with useful communication video clips and points that enable learning and reflection on. The following *2-day workshop provides facilitated experiential learning opportunity (with support of actors), on a range of communication issues that learners bring to the group.
MSc Cancer Care, in Partnership with University of Liverpool	September 2022	The entry requirements for this course are normally a relevant honours degree, a recognised health related professional qualification and professional registration and experience in health or social care employment.	The programme will enable you to further your educational and professional development within the speciality of oncology; to drive forward practice improvements, expand the evidence base and improve care for all cancer patients. This multi-professional part time programme	£9900	Part-time 3 years	https://www.liverpool.ac.uk/study/postgraduate-taught/taught/cancer-care-msc/overview/allows registered healthcare practitioners to undertake master's level study whilst continuing with your NHS role.

CANC600 Fundamentals of Cancer Care	September 2022	This academic module is Health or Social Care professionals who are involved in support, care or treatment for those facing or living with a cancer diagnosis. Those with appropriate background qualifications to study at Degree Level 6. NB: Academic Exit points: This module can be taken as a stand-alone CPD, or as a 'step-up' approach to continuing with further modules at Masters Level as part of a MSc Level Diploma or Full MSc exit award).	This 15 week module (with 6 taught days) aims to provide opportunity for learners to develop their own practice through critical appreciation of the multi-dimensional impact of cancer and treatments, and the influences that drive contemporary cancer considerations and practice. Assessment is in the form of 2 critically written pieces of work.	£1030	15 Weeks	https://education.clatterbridgecc.nhs.uk/modules/nm6-999-foundations-cancer-care
CANC700 Developing Practice in Cancer Care	September 2022	This academic module is for Health or Social Care professionals, who provide, support or influence the care or treatment of those who are	This 15 week module (with 6 taught days) aims to provide opportunity for learners to develop	£1030	15 Weeks	https://education.clatterbridgecc.nhs.uk/modules/nm7-121-key-concepts-cancer-care

		facing, or living with a cancer diagnosis. Those with appropriate background qualifications to study at Masters Level 7. NB: Academic Exit points: This module can be taken as a stand-alone CPD or along with other relevant modules to exit at various points, Diploma, Certificate or full Masters.	their own practice, through addressing needs-led gaps in practice to positively affect cancer care in their own practice area. This would be critically aligned to appreciation of the multi-dimensional impact of cancer and treatments and drivers of contemporary cancer considerations and practices. Assessment is in the form of 2 critically written pieces of work. One of which includes an innovative plan for addressing a practice gap need.
CANC601/CANC6012 Fundamentals of SACT Administration & Care	September 2022 January 2023	This academic module is aimed at Registered Nurses working in a service that delivers Systemic Anti-Cancer Treatment (SACT) who are required to administer SACT as part of their role. There are theory and practice components to the course and	This course is designed to equip professionals with an appreciation of the patient experience, their role as an empathic care provider and the clinical skills and	£1030	15 Weeks	https://education.clatterbridgecc.nhs.uk/modules/nm6-996-chemotherapy-principles-and-care

		the practice components are flexible depending on the level of SACT administration experience. This course can be taken as CPD or as part of the MSc Cancer Care Programme pathway.	knowledge to practice safely and effectively, including achievement of clinical competencies for administration of SACT. The assessment components are designed to provide learners with critical appraisal skills and the ability to critically reflect on their own learning journey.
CANC701/CAN7012 Developing Practice in SACT Administration & Care	September 2022 January 2023	This academic module is aimed at Registered Nurses working in a service that delivers Systemic Anti-Cancer Treatment (SACT) who are required to administer SACT as part of their role, wish to study at Masters level and have an interest in service development. There are theory and practice components to the course and the practice components are flexible depending on the level of SACT administration experience. This course can be taken as CPD or as part of the MSc Cancer Care Programme pathway.	This course is designed for registered nurses who are required to administer systemic anti-cancer treatment as part of their professional role to equip them with a critical understanding of the patient experience and their role as an empathic care provider. The development of service provision through use of critical	£1030	15 Weeks	https://education.clatterbridgecc.nhs.uk/modules/nm7-122-cancer-treatments-and-supportive-interventions

			appraisal and analysis to identify service improvement strategies and the clinical skills and knowledge to practice safely and effectively including clinical competencies in SACT administration. The assessment components are designed to provide learners with advanced critical appraisal skills, the ability to critically reflect on their own learning journey and use critical analysis to evaluate their own chemotherapy service development along with achievement of evidence based clinical competencies in SACT Administration.
--	--	--	--	--	--	--

CANC602 Fundamentals of Palliative & End of Life Care	January 2023	This academic module is aimed at Professionals who provide care or treatment support for people living with incurable disease or frailty for whom care and treatment is palliative and/or end of life focus; who wish to develop their develop their critical understanding of palliative and end of life care of the person with cancer. Those with appropriate background qualifications to study at Degree Level 6. NB: Academic Exit points: This module can be taken as a stand-alone CPD, or as a 'step-up' approach to continuing with further modules at Masters Level as part of a MSc Level Diploma or Full MSc exit award).	This 15 week module (with 6 taught days) aims to provide opportunity for learners to: critically appreciate the fundamentals of palliative care and treatment approaches and priorities aligned to supporting those with incurable disease/illness; and gain personal development in order to positively influence own practice related to positively affecting outcomes for those with palliative and/or end of life care needs. Assessment is in the form of 2 written pieces of work.	£1030	15 Weeks	https://education.clatterbridgecc.nhs.uk/modules/nm6-997-palliative-and-end-life-care
CANC702 Developing Practice in Palliative & End of Life Care	January 2023	This academic module is aimed at Professionals who provide care or treatment support for people living with incurable disease or frailty for whom care and treatment is palliative	This 15 week module (with 6 taught days) aims to provide opportunity for learners to develop their critical	£1030	15 Weeks	https://education.clatterbridgecc.nhs.uk/modules/nm7-123-advancing-palliative-and-end-life-care

		and/or end of life focus, who wish to develop their critical knowledge and influence needs-led approaches to gaps in practice. Relevant to those with appropriate background qualifications to study at Masters Level 7. NB: Academic Exit points: This module can be taken as a stand-alone CPD, or as a 'step-up' approach to continuing with further modules at Masters Level as part of a MSc Level Diploma or Full MSc exit award).	understanding of palliative and end of life care principles and approaches, and affect practice development in their practice area. Assessment is in the form of 2 written pieces of work. One of which includes development of a needs-led resource in their practice area.
CANC703 The Cancer Survivor: Developing Practice Supporting Those Living With The Consequences of Cancer and Cancer Treatment	April 2022	The course is relevant to a wide range of Professionals who work within settings which support the needs of those living with and beyond cancer. This module is suitable for those with appropriate background qualifications to study at Masters Level 7. This course can be taken as CPD or as part of the MSc Cancer Care Programme pathway.	This online academic module aims to provide opportunity for learners to critically appraise the cancer survivorship context for those living with and beyond cancer, and drivers that aim to influence practice need and gaps. Content will include contemporary	£1030	15 Weeks	https://education.clatterbridgecc.nhs.uk/modules/nm6-995-chemotherapy-administration-and-care

			considerations pertaining to broad effects/impacts of cancer and treatments, behavioural, communication and other supportive initiatives aligned to their potential in positively addressing individual need and well-being for those living with and beyond cancer.
FRCR Physics & Radiobiology Teaching for Therapeutic Radiographers	TBC	This online interactive course aims to provide FRCR level teaching in line with current RCR guidance relating to physics. Who Should Attend? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Consultant radiographers requiring FRCR level education in this topic • Ambitious radiographers who are supported by their host trust in developing their career towards consultant practice. 	This course aims to help participants gain the knowledge and understanding of physics and radiobiology that underpin current radiotherapy practice. Topics include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Electromagnetic radiation and particle interactions with tissue • MV and kV 	£400	5 Days	Please contact ccf-tr.clinicaleducation@nhs.net

			equipment and design of facilities <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Radiation dosimetry, calibration and practical dose measurement • Properties of MV radiation beams • Treatment planning • Quality assurance in radiotherapy • Radiation protection and legislation • Brachytherapy • Radiobiology
Final FRCR Part B Clinical Oncology Mock Exam	TBC	This course is suitable for all candidates preparing for the Final FRCR Part B Exam	Course content includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mock exam with online vivas • Skin Tutorial • Radiotherapy Planning Workshop • Written feedback 	£250	1 Day	Please contact ccf-tr.clinicaleducation@nhs.net